3rd Annual Women's Leadership Empowerment Conference

LEADERS TALK - VIP Admission Only*

◆ "Recruitment Challenges for Her" by Blake Wittman

Blake will discuss the specific career challenges faced by women and strategies to overcome them. After his impactful session last year, he is back with an extended talk, geared to inspire confidence and equip women with tools to navigate recruitment challenges and foster career growth.

◆ "Growing Leaders" by Casey Phelps

Last year, Casey played a pivotal role as a panelist, offering exceptional insights into developing leaders within her organization and providing crucial support for women during maternity leave and their return transition. Now, she returns with a dedicated session, bringing her wealth of experience and dedication to our mission.

◆ "Impostor Syndrom" by Renata Dvorakova

This immersive session goes beyond the surface, offering a unique opportunity to understand, discuss, and conquer Imposter Syndrome. Be part of this enriching experience shaping the dialogue on leadership and empowerment at our conference!

◆ "Leading with and without Titles" by Andrea Tkačuková

In this thought-provoking session, Andrea will draw from her 15 years of entrepreneurial expertise and her role as a mother to shed light on the qualities that make a true leader. "Leader Without Title" is not just a talk; it's an exploration of the delicate balance between strength and delicacy, independence, and collaboration.

◆ "Leading Today Discovery Session" by Ladana Edwards

Ladana will guide an engaging session delving into the multifaceted role of a leader, exploring the expectations placed upon leaders, addressing challenges, and offering valuable insights on overcoming them.
